NEW BUSINESS

A. DISCUSSION OF: SLAMS & S'MORES RECAP

Chair Bellas reported on the Slams & S'mores event that was held. The Arts, Culture, and Heritage Committee discussed the following related to the Slams & S'mores:

- Weather did not cooperate
- Logistically, the event went well
- May be worthwhile to pursue again with modifications
- Make a normal part of the Apple Daze event
 - Apple Daze will be the first Saturday in October (unless it is a Michigan football game) – next Apple Daze is scheduled for October 1, 2022
- Consider re-naming the event
- Next year start at 5:30pm
- Announcements at Apple Daze – stick around for this
- Recruit storytellers and performers

B. DISCUSSION OF: FEBRUARY EVENT – WE LOVE DEXTER

The Arts, Culture, and Heritage Committee discussed the following related to a possible February event:

- Other events taking place in February and March.
- Have the submissions due by February 2, 2022 – put the pieces into frames at the February ACH meeting, then return the framed pieces back to the children after the event is over
- Photography, drawings, images, paintings, stories, poem, song lyrics
- Work to compile information for the event for the December meeting
- Ask Lisa Vollmers to provide whatever information she has regarding the event proposal

C. DISCUSSION OF: BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION UPDATE AND ACH PROJECT(S)

The Arts, Culture, and Heritage Committee discussed the following related to the City's sculptures:

- Looking at what the Arts, Culture, and Heritage Committee may want to do
- Bright Walls - Murals
- Glass see-through glass plaques that have a historical picture, like in downtown Ann Arbor

D. DISCUSSION OF: ACHC WEBPAGE AND ART WALK GUIDE

The Arts, Culture, and Heritage Committee discussed the following related the Arts, Culture, and Heritage website and Art Walk Guide:

- Keeping the website updated
- Social Media
- Updating the Art Walk Guide
 - Address, website, mosaic birdhouse, logo
- Using the City logo with Committee name at the bottom
